TRAVEL TO TOBAGO

Travel to Tobago (Trinidad and Tobago) is done by air.

The Tobago airport, Crown Point International Airport (TBA), is served by many international airlines: (airlines that fly directly to Tobago (TBA).

You may also fly to Trinidad, Port of Spain Airport (POS). (see here the list of airlines flying to POS) and then reach Tobago from Trinidad with:
- The Tobago Express that flies every hour from Piarco Airport (POS) to Tobago Crown Point Airport (TBA)
- The Fast Ferry that sails four times daily from the port of Port Of Spain to Scarborough. The line uses newly built fast Catamarans and the trip takes approximately 2 ½ hours.

The entry requirements (passport and/or visas) to come to Trinidad and Tobago can be found here.

If you are interested, cars can be rented both in Trinidad and in Tobago. Find here an extensive (if not exhaustive) list of Car-rental agencies

A wealth of information on Trinidad and Tobago (including the one given above) can be found at http://www.tntisland.com/ http://www.visittnt.com/default.asp or at many other interesting sites…